Givenchy by Sarah Burton mules

In Sarah Burton's knowing hands, a blushing English rose is no wallflower, but rather a thing of high-flying beauty—especially when applied to a jaunty leather mule and gracing the can-canning feet of model Wali Deutsch. Prada coat and skirt.

Roger Vivier pumps

The Belle Vivier is as classic as they come, with a broad buckle and gently sloping heel nodding back to its mid-'60s origins. But as model Sara Caballero prowls the street with Deutsch (and Tuxedo), hers shimmer with new pep. On Caballero: Max Mara sweater and shorts. On Deutsch: Sweater and skirt from The Row. Chloé shoes.

Tory Burch kitten heels

Appealingly low-slung—and prettily hand-embroidered—heels from Tory Burch sing with savoir faire. With bright tights, a calf-skimming skirt, and a tailored jacket (the latter two also from Tory Burch), they glam up a day at the office—or lighten up a gallivanting night out.

Gucci stilettos

You know what they say: Have goldendoodle (this one's named Harper) and densely bejeweled pumps, will travel. Hurling through Midtown in a scarlet coat, also from Gucci, Deutsch cuts a doggone dashing figure.

Chanel heel

This two-tone Chanel pump was ready-made for springing forward, its shiny, textured body crying out to skip through sunlit streets. In this story: hair, E Williams; makeup, Grace Ahn. Details, see In This Issue.
